Welcome to Gothenburg! During late summer and beginning of autumn there are lots of events happening such as music and food festivals. The outdoor season is in full swing with endless possibilities; the nature is just around the corner with forests to hike in and the ocean to swim in. Check in with the tourist office and their event calendar for more information: www.goteborg.com

Getting Around the City:

Styr & Ställ
These are self-service rental bikes that you can find at 60 stops around town, available 7 days a week until December 31st. You can access Styr & Ställ through a Season Ticket or 3-Day Ticket. Each ride is 30 min/ time.
More information about using the bikes at: http://en.goteborgbikes.se

Cycle City app
This is an app that helps you to find cycle service providers: cycle pumps, bikes for hire and parking, as well as helping you plan your route. http://forlivochrorelse.se/en/appen-cykelstaden

Use your Västtrafik-card to visit the archipelago
The archipelago of Gothenburg consists of both larger islands with villages and small deserted islets and skerries. Some of them hold nature reserves with unique flora and fauna. You will find more information about the islands and also useful links at: www.goteborg.com/en/archipelago

You can reach the archipelago islands by taking one of the many boats. The best thing is that you can use your Västtrafik-card on the boat. Visit the website of Västtrafik: www.vasttrafik.se search on: “Where do you want to go?” and write the name of one of the islands.

Local transportation
The local public transportation system in Gothenburg is operated by Västtrafik; buses, trains, trams and ferries. Find more information about tickets and plan your trip at www.vasttrafik.se

Parks and Gardens in Gothenburg
Hanging out in parks is a typical Swedish thing to do; in summer and beginning of autumn the parks fill up with people on picnic blankets, joggers and children playing, everyone is welcome to use the parks! Just make sure you follow Allemansrätten or The Right of Public Access: You are allowed to walk, jog, cycle, ride or ski through the forests, countryside and across other people’s land, provided you don’t cause any damage to crops, tree plantations or other sensitive land. Don’t disturb and don’t destroy – that’s the main rule when it comes to understanding the Swedish Right of Public access. http://www.swedishepa.se/

Gothenburg Botanical Garden.
A beautiful park for a walk or a picnic. Visit the herb gardens, a bamboo grove, a Japanese valley, rock gardens and hothouses with orchids. Behind the botanical garden the Ångårdsbergen nature reserve begins, which is a “wild park”. Here you will find an arboretum with different trees from around the world. This is also a popular jogging and mountain biking spot. www.gotbot.se Slottsskogen.

Slottsskogen is a big city park. Here you can walk through the Azalea valley, visit the Children’s Zoo, look at seals, penguins, moose and more – all for free. Many people come here for recreation and exercises. www.goteborg.se/slottsskogen

Trädgårdsföreningen – The Garden Society of Gothenburg
This is a green oasis in the heart of the city with flowerbeds, woodlands, a rose garden and a palm house. It’s a great place for a pause from the busy city life www.tradgardsforeningen.se

Gunnebo House and Gardens.
One of Sweden’s most beautiful neoclassical estates, situated between Stensjön and Rådasjön in Mölndal, just south of Gothenburg. There are three different types of gardens represented at Gunnebo: the formal garden, the landscape park and the kitchen garden. http://gunneboslott.se/en/

An event not to miss:
Gothenburg Culture Festival, 16-20 August 2017
For five days in August, the streets and squares of Gothenburg are transformed for a vibrant celebration – the annual Culture Festival. This is a Festival is for everyone and it is free of charge! Ballet, carnival, street theatre, culinary culture, fairy tale and circus, design, poetry and music of all kinds. www.goteborg.com/kulturkalaset
